Hip Nothings – 'Zeroparty'.

1: CIRCLES.

It doesn't really concern me,
If you don't,
(If you don't...)

It just makes it simple,
to get out,
not get hurt.

If i see you in Camden,
I just don't mind.
I can't be with you,
Be with you tonight.

We just go in circles.

I'm still on English time,
as the flight comes in.
Landing in Schoenfeld,
South of Berlin.

It's hard to explain it now,
All that you meant to me then.
Maybe it's better as...
Expectation.

Im just a traveler,
Not always on my own.
I'm just a traveler,
By myself, alone.

Just keep moving on,
Down the river, down the road.
Maybe it's better as...
What i don't know.

We just go in circles.

2: BETWEEN THE LINES.

Different cities,
Different views,
Different people, now,
Different truths.

Chance is you've been here,
Passing though...
Seems familiar,
Can't place it though.

Seems familiar,
Different too...

Nothing to keep me here,
Anymore.
I don't know why I stayed,
It's better alone.

Yeah, that's an irony,
Coming from you...
Too many lovers,
Burn you through

Too many lovers, girl,
What can I do?

All of the time, between the lines,
She's reading what I cant see,
The moment I try to take that chance,
Its like I'm stepping where I cant be,

All of the signs I thought were right
Are pointing straight back at me,
Now I don't know - should I stop or go?
Maybe just wait and see...

Maybe I'll wait and see...

3: OVER TO YOU.

She comes to you,
It's easier not to feel that its true.

It disappears,
All things do, all things do.

I never thought about it - getting old.
But now I do...

And it's hard enough to doubt it,
When you know what I've been through....

So you're free

It's over to you
Yeah, you're free,
Free as the century is new.

You never talked about it,
Now I know - I never knew.

There's no need to scream and shout it,
I can tell I'm losing you.

Giving it time is hardly gonna change a thing.
But it might... keep you listening...

Free.
Over to you.
Free.
Free as the century is new.

It must be love,
It's mostly good.
The sea is calm,
Over to you.

It's mostly love,
It's mostly good.
Neither of us,
Were so mature.

Sound of singing
Across the room.
The way you talk
The way you move.

It's mostly love,
But now it's through
And you're free
Tomorrow's yours.

4: HARMONY.

Ask yourself, "are you happy?"
"Is it real?"

Always the sun is in your eyes now,
Like you can't see in front.

Won't you tell me?
Tell me, please, what I should do.

"Just get some sleep now,
Drink some coffee,
Don't think about it more than you should".

Yes, I'm fine. I'm fine here.
Colder now, a little broken now,
Maybe, maybe.

Harmony.
Don't lose it, please.

Colder now, a little broken now,
Maybe, maybe.

I can't be before you, here.
Idle in your happiness,
The pleasure comes in vain.

I remember you,
Your dress falling to your knees,
And 'round your necklace,
The picture of a Saint.

I don't believe in all these things.
I don't believe, now, in anything.

Oh, won't you tell me?
Tell me, please.

I can't hear you now,
Your words are all drowned out,
By the sound from the street.

Harmony.
Don't lose it please.

It's colder now, a little broken down,
Maybe. Maybe.

5: CALIFORNIA

I got it coming, 'most every night –
Gotta lose that state of mind...

Heat from this city can close to take your life -
In these heady times...

I see you running, through changing light
Hold on tight...

California –
by the ocean side.
California –
From the Strip, to Venice Beach at night...

I must be out of my mind,
Among the palms and the vines...

And the heat in you subsides,
Just as you bring me form the night...

Light as the weather,
She's the colour of the sky.

Lets take the coastal road,
For a drive...

Love is an atmosphere –
Lets make it a while.

Being with you,
Gets me high.

And now it's gone,
I'm still trying,
To get your heart
To change you mind.

6: APRIL

We met at the party
of a friend,
It was just us two left by the end.

A bus ride home,
You talked,
You came to bed.

And it was April,
In the morning,
You said.

I know it's easier to side,
With her not me.
But I'm asking you to try,
To try and see.

I know it's harder for you now,
And you know why,
But sometimes there's no reason why you're down.
And you just smile,
And change you're mind.

So this the place,
that I am in.
Yeah, this is the place,
that I am in.

Coming back to see you,
It' been a while.
Don't take it hard upon yourself,
You're still a child,
(still like a child).

There's nothing more,
Nothing more,
That I could say.
Except "you don't need me,
Anyway".

Yeah, you don't need this,
Anyway.
